The image shows a screenshot of the International Institute of Social History (IISH) website homepage. At the top left, the logo consists of a pair of curly braces followed by the text "international institute of social history". To the right of the logo is a horizontal navigation menu with the items "collections", "research", "data", "events", and "about iish". In the top right corner, there is a circular logo for the "KNAW Humanities Cluster". The main heading "INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTE OF SOCIAL HISTORY" is centered in large white letters, with the tagline "the world's leading institute in socio-economic history" below it. A search bar is located below the tagline, highlighted by an orange box, with a magnifying glass icon on the right. Below the search bar is a "search help" link. In the bottom right corner of the main content area, there are language selection buttons for "EN" and "NL". Below the main content area, there are four panels: "COLLECTIONS" (with a bookshelf image), "RESEARCH" (with a historical crowd image), "DATA" (with a network diagram image), and "EVENTS" (with a lecture hall image). Below the "COLLECTIONS" and "RESEARCH" panels, there are smaller images: a building facade for collections and a group of people for research. The labels "collections" and "research" are centered below their respective panels.
