

Work in groups of five and decide which answers you agree with.

How British or American Are You? - Quiz

1. Which drink is traditionally associated with the British?
A) Lemonade
B) Tea
C) Coffee
D) Hot chocolate
2. What is a typical American fast-food dish?
A) Fish and chips
B) Hamburger
C) Shepherd's pie
D) Curry
3. Which holiday is uniquely celebrated with fireworks in the United States?
A) Guy Fawkes Night
B) Thanksgiving
C) Independence Day (4th of July)
D) Boxing Day
4. British people are stereotypically known for their:
A) Large family gatherings
B) Love of queuing orderly
C) Passion for baseball
D) Frequent barbecues
5. Americans are often perceived as:
A) Reserved and quiet
B) Outspoken and friendly
C) Sarcastic and dry
D) Polite and formal
6. Which holiday involves eating turkey traditionally?
A) Thanksgiving (USA)
B) Boxing Day (UK)
C) Christmas (Both)
D) Easter (Both)
7. Which of these sports is associated with the UK?
A) Football (soccer)
B) Baseball
C) American football
D) Basketball
8. What phrase would a Brit commonly use to describe something very good?
A) Awesome
B) Brilliant
C) Cool
D) Rad
9. What is the US national anthem called?
A) God Save the Queen
B) Star-Spangled Banner
C) America the Beautiful
D) My Country Tis of Thee

10. Which of these foods is quintessentially British?

- A) Hotdog
- B) Roast beef and Yorkshire pudding
- C) Cheeseburger
- D) Pancakes

---

Stereotypes Worksheet

Match the stereotype to British or American culture and discuss:

- Love of tea and queuing
- Big portions and fast food
- Polite but sarcastic humor
- Proud of baseball and barbecue
- Famous for monarchy and castles
- Brits have bad teeth
- Americans are obsessed with patriotism
- British humor is dark and sarcastic
- Americans are workaholics
- Brits queue patiently in all situations